protein bar

with salted almonds

NO ADDED SUGAR

NO GLUTEN

- ✓ High protein content.
- ✓ Low sugar content
- ✓ For a quick and efficient protein intake into the body
- ✓ Protein contributes to the maintenance of normal bones and muscle mass.

PURPOSE:

The protein bar, with its high protein content, is intended for everyone with a varied and balanced diet, and especially for those who have an increased need for protein (athletes, recreational users, children and the elderly).

USE:

The protein bar is recommended during and after sports activities, when the muscles need protein, when there is no time for a snack, during working hours, at school, and when we do not get enough protein with other daily meals. It is excellent on the go, since it is a convenient solution for satisfying your hunger.
